PRESS RELEASE

STINGERS HOST MCGILL FOR SHAUGHNESSEY CUP

The Concordia University Football Stingers will be out to avenge last week's 24-12 loss to the McGill Redmen, when they host McGill on Saturday (October 13th) at 1 p.m. at the Concordia Stadium. Up for grabs will be the coveted Shaughnessy Cup, symbolic of University football supremacy in Montreal.

Last year the Redmen won the Cup with a 31-8 win over the Stingers in a game played at Molson Stadium. However, this time around the game takes an added importance. With McGill on the verge of joining a new conference for the 1985 season, Saturday's winner may hold the Cup for some time. In addition, the game may mark the final league game between McGill and Concordia unless the proposed McGill, Toronto, Queen's, Western Conference fails to materialize, or unless an inter-locking set-up is implemented.

The game will also feature a cheerleading contest at half-time between McGill and Concordia cheerleaders. The first contest, held last year at Molson Stadium was won by McGill.

HOCKEY STINGERS HOST OTTAWA

The Concordia University Stingers men's hockey team will open the 1984-85 home schedule on Tuesday evening (October 16th) at the Concordia Athletics Complex Arena. Game time is 7:30 p.m.. The defending Q.U.H.L. champion Stingers under head coach Paul Arsenault, will have 16 lettermen in their line-up on opening night, as they face last year's league finalist Ottawa, the team most experts feel has the best chance of ending Concordia's 9 year reign in Q.U.H.L.
